WELCOMING WORDS

Dear Delegates, Chairs, News Team, Administrative Staff and MUN Directors, we welcome you to this year's Alster Model United Nations conference.

After two years have passed, we can happily say that this year the AMUN Executive-Team organized the Alster Model United Nations Conference again. We worked hard to ensure the best conference experience possible for everyone involved. With a few rocks in our way, it was hard to see this conference happen, but with everyone on board it worked, and we are very grateful to share everything we worked on for the last six months.

This Year, we based all our Issues around the 10th sustainable development goal (Reduce inequality within and among countries). Within the issues we tried to include different characteristics of the inequality in our world and tried to create committees that will have fruitful debates and good resolutions.

We are really excited for this conference and hope it will be as special to you as it already is for us.

Your Secretary Generals

Jette Siemer and Luise Heemann
